We received an incomplete FAFSA for the 2016-2017 aid year, it is missing your parental data. If you are not able to answer “YES” to one of the following questions, than your parental data is required to apply for Federal Aid.

- Were you born before January 1, 1993?
- At the beginning of 2016-2017 will you be working on your Master’s or Doctorate Program?
- Are you currently serving on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces for purposes other than training?
- Are you a veteran of the U. S. Armed Forces?
- Do you have children who will receive more than half of their support from you between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2017?
- Do you have dependents (other than your children or spouse) who live with you and who receive more than half of their support from you, now through June 30, 2017?
- At any time since you turned age 13, were both of your parents deceased, were you foster care or were you a dependent or ward of the court?
- As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you an emancipated minor?
- As determined by a court in your state of legal residence, are you or were you in legal guardianship?
- At any time on after July 1, 2015, did your high school or school district homeless liaison determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
- At any time on or after July 1, 2015, did the director of an emergency shelter or transitional housing program funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless?
- At any time on or after July 1, 2015, did the director of a runaway or homeless youth basic center or transitional living program determine that you were an unaccompanied youth who was homeless or were self-supporting and at risk of being homeless?

If you are unable to complete this section with parental data requested, please contact our office to discuss your financial aid options.