Home >>Online Learning State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements and Professional Licensure

NHTI has entered into a voluntary agreement called the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (NC-SARA).

NHTI – Concord's Community College promotes online degrees and certificates strategically across the United States, to demonstrate our values, ensure our commitment the NHTI Educated Person Statement of Philosophy regardless of the teaching and learning modality, as best suits the interest and education of our students. NHTI is an institutional participant in the National Council for State Authorization Reciprocity Agreements (NC-SARA). Voluntary membership in NC-SARA allows NHTI to provide distance learning to students who reside outside of the state of New Hampshire.

The primary goal of NC-SARA is to provide basic protections to NHTI students who live outside of New Hampshire and who participate in NHTI distance/online learning coursework.

Professional Licensure

New Hampshire Licensing requirements may not be recognized as sufficient to obtain a license in another state. NHTI cannot determine the applicability of program requirements to satisfy licensing requirements outside of the state of New Hampshire. Our degree and certificate programs are designed to meet licensure requirements of licensing entities within the state of New Hampshire.

Addressing Concerns and Complaints

The Student Handbook provides a wealth of information about NHTI policies and processes. The section titled, Concerns and Complaints, articulates the process for addressing concerns at NHTI.
