A Pair of NHTI Alumni Selected to YSCC Twin All-Decade Baseball Team

CONCORD, NH — Today, the Yankee Small College Conference (YSCC) announced the Golf Twin All-Decade Team featuring two NHTI Alumni. Luke Merrill and Jon Sandlin were honored for their remarkable play at NHTI. “This Amazing group of NHTI recipients. Every athlete has had an incredible career playing and leading our teams in many ways”, said Paul Hogan, Athletic Director “I want to send congratulations to each player and to thank them for their many contributions our fine college and athletic program.”

Luke Merrill was one of the best players in NHTI baseball history. Merrill was a three-time YSCC All-Conference selection, being a great hitter as well as pitcher when needed. Merrill was also named the YSCC Player of the year in 2010 his best season with the team. Merrill was inducted into the NHTI Athletics Hall of Fame in the class of 2019 for his play on and off the field.

Jon Sandlin was the ace for NHTI in 2005 and 2006 and played a big role on those baseball teams. Sandlin was the 2006 runner-up for the YSCC Player of the Year honors but did make the YSCC All-Conference team. In 2005 Sandlin won team MVP and showed tremendous leadership atop of the pitching staff.
