Mustangs Surge Late and Stun Lynx with 4-2 Victory

CONCORD, NH – After 80 minutes of play we were even at 2-2. Then Central Maine CC raced past the Lynx for a pair of goals within an eight-minute span and secured a huge YSCC Conference victory.

NHTI started the action early in the contest following a beautiful centering pass from Axel Alberto (Manchester, NH) to the foot of Teigan Friedrich (Andover, NH) for his first score of the season in the fourth minute. The Mustangs answered in minute 22 as Mohamed Abdikadir hammered home a goal positioned by Abdilahi Abdi.

In the second half CMCC would gain their first lead of the game with a goal from Suab Nur. With time running out the Lynx offense got what they needed as Friedrich sparked the offense again sending a corner kick which found the foot of Nickolas Weinmann (Hooksett, NH) for score number two of the season.

Then the dominant stretch for the Mustangs happened. From minute 80 to 88 the visitors marked two more goals one on a possession attack which was put past Shaun Goyette (Berlin, NH) by Mohamed Motan. The other came after a last-ditch effort by the Lynx saw everyone on the attack during a corner kick including Goyette. CMCC cleared it away and found Abdilahi Abdi for the ending strike.
