Stacy Boyden Announced as Next NHTI Softball Head Coach

CONCORD, NH – On Monday morning NHTI-Concord's Community College Athletic Director Paul Hogan announced that Stacy Boyden would be taking over the softball program.

“We are excited to welcome Stacy back to NHTI in the role of head women’s softball coach,” said Hogan. “Stacy has a great working knowledge of NHTI, a real passion for the game of softball and the experience with NHTI serving under Coach Finnigan to become a real asset for our athletic program.”

Boyden was most coaching for Bow High School as the softball coach for the Spring 2021 season. Boyden is very much so active in the New Hampshire softball community working as the club manager and head softball coach at Plex Softball in Bedford, while continuing her role as the athletic director for Chichester Central School.

This will be Stacy’s second stint at NHTI as she was the assistant softball coach and athletics intern from 2013-2016.

“I am honored to follow in Coach Finnigan's legacy and to offer my knowledge and experience to the next generation of student athletes, said Boyden. “It is great to be back as part of the NHTI softball coaching staff! Go Lynx!”

The Lynx will be looking to win their fourth-straight Yankee Small College Conference Championship this year after missing out on the Spring 2019 season and 2020 season due to COVID-19.
