Kerry Finnigan Steps Down as NHTI Softball Head Coach

CONCORD, NH – On Tuesday morning NHTI softball head coach Kerry Finnigan announced he has stepped down from his position effective immediately. Coach Finnigan has been one of the best softball coaches in NHTI and Yankee Small College Conference (YSCC) history with an impressive 144-54-1 overall record with four YSCC Championships and five USCAA World Series Appearances.

“Coach Finnigan has done a remarkable job as our head softball coach,” said NHTI Athletic Director Paul Hogan. “Our softball program has enjoyed tremendous success over the years in the YSCC and at the national level in the USCAA. We will miss Coach Finnigan and we thank him for his many contributions to NHTI softball and NHTI Athletics.”

The NHTI softball program will next compete in the spring season and look to capture their fourth-straight YSCC Championship.
