

USING DIGNITY TO TRANSFORM SCHOOL CULTURE

A webinar series based on the work of Donna Hicks Ph.D that explores how using Dignity as the foundation for classroom management, school culture, conflict resolution, and social emotional learning creates transformative learning spaces.

DATES AND TOPICS

March 21, 4:30-6pm

How to Transform Classroom Culture Session 1: What is Dignity and Why Does it Matter

March 28, 4:30-6pm

How to Transform Classroom Culture Session 2: Using Dignity as the Foundation for Classroom Management

April 4, 4:30-6pm

Operationalizing Dignity Session 1: Collaborative Discussion for Returning Educators

April 11, 4:30-6pm

Operationalizing Dignity Session 2: Expanding the Application of Dignity in Your School Community

This series is facilitated by educator Megan Saxelby. She specializes in emotional intelligence, prosocial critical thinking, and dignity. Her work combines research in neuroscience, conflict resolution, and social emotional learning.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION CLICK THE TOPICS ABOVE OR CONTACT KELLY MOORE DUNN (KDUNN@CCSNH.EDU)