Welcome to a challenging and rewarding profession! The criminal justice industry accepts the best and most prepared people and offers you the opportunity to make a real impact. You'll know you are part of an industry whose duties keep the community, state, and country safe and secure.

Academic Options

NHTI's Criminal Justice instructors are industry professionals who have spent a significant amount of time in the field. You'll learn the basics of field work and the rules of criminal procedure and criminal law. You can explore specialty fields such as juvenile justice, corrections operations, and police-community relations. NHTI's centralized location provides many opportunities for internships and potential employment.

Career Opportunities

The field of criminal justice presents many opportunities for employment. There is a present need for full- and part-time police officers and full-time state and county corrections officers. The NHTI Criminal Justice program offers much more in the way of potential employment opportunities in other state and municipal law enforcement agencies as well as diversion and alternative programs and private security.
